

As a truck driver in the Southeast, my XM Radio is the best way to keep up with road conditions. I do have a right to get the best information when I need it.